

Footballer Confesses To Slaying

Arrested 12 Hours After Montrealer's Death in N.Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(CP)—A chance acquaintance in a midtown bar started a chain of events that led to the brutal death yesterday of a 56-year-old Montreal textile executive.

Less than 12 hours after the body of Colin Cameron Mackellar had been found in his Canadian Club suite in the Waldorf-Astoria, a 39-year-old Michigan salesman was arrested and had confessed to the fatal beating.

ONLY SUSPECT

Dark haired Ralph Edward Barrow, 34-year-old former football player from Grand Rapids, Mich., was the only suspect involved in the murder, police said.

A book of matches with the name and address of a waitress in the bar gave police their only clue. The matches were found on the floor of Mackellar's luxurious suite in the Canadian Club, which occupies the 10th and 11th floors of the Park Avenue hotel.

Mackellar who arrived Thursday night from Montreal by plane was general sales manager of Do-

Two Sask. Youths Escape B.C. Jail

KAMLOOPS, B.C., Nov. 6.—(CP)—Two Saskatchewan youths, awaiting trial here on joint charges of kidnapping and extortion, escaped from jail here yesterday.

The two, John Ronald Ross, 20, and Albert Butcher, 18, both of Prince Albert, were arrested Oct. 29 and were committed for trial on three counts involving robberies at nearby Chateaux.

Big Baby Born

CONWAY, Ark., Nov. 6.—(AP)—A 26-pound mother gave birth to a 17½ pound son, her third child, here yesterday. The mother is Mrs. D. H. Harker, 36, of Conway.

The child at birth was the size of a normal infant five or six months old.

Princess' Low-Cut Look Has All London Agog

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(UPI)—The Royal, lovely and ladylike daughter of pretty Princess Margaret started a lot of talk and a new fashion rash yesterday.

She showed up Monday night at American comedian Danny Kay's command performance in a dress which could only be described as low-cut.

"The most spectacularly elegant dress she has ever worn," said a columnist.

"Sensational, daring, shocking!" exclaimed the Illustrated magazine.

"Too low for the King and Queen's daughter," said some of the women.

"Wish, wish," whistled the men.

Financing of Public Works, Housing Problem for City

Financing future civic public works and housing are two major problems facing the City of Edmonton.

So Mayor Harry Ainlay informed aldermen at the inaugural meeting of the new city council Saturday.

He congratulated four aldermen on their reelection and, welcoming Ald. Richard Hanna, newcomer to council, said "council would benefit from new ideas introduced by him."

"Indication was given the administration was considering large-scale debt abatement," Mayor Ainlay said the commissioners were considering placing streets along on a local improvement basis. Calgary has charged cutting to local improvement account for several years.

He said the housing problem, acute in recent years, was becoming more aggravated.

City's building code standards and inflated construction costs present a great percentage of citizens cannot afford decent housing, Mayor Ainlay said.

Resulting from the housing shortage.

Escaped Convict From Fort Jail Still At Large

Edmonton, Nov. 6.—(AP)—A 26-year-old inmate of Fort Saskatchewan jail, about 25 miles northeast of Edmonton, who made good his escape after Friday morning, was still at large today.

Police said today that efforts to apprehend the man have failed so far.

He escaped over a wall at the jail about 2 a.m. Friday.

Crippen was sentenced here Sept. 16 on charges of theft, using a car without the owner's consent and possession of stolen property.

He was serving one year each for the theft and possession charges and nine months on the car charge.

The sentences were to run concurrently.

The escape is described as a first-class feat, eight inches in height, weighing about 135 pounds and is of fair complexion.

TRUMAN IS GIVING GALLUP BAD TIME

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 6.—(AP)—The Peoria Journal yesterday cancelled the Gallup Poll, a regular feature of the paper for at least 15 years, because, the editor said, readers "would not have faith in any Gallup Poll findings from now on." The Gallup Poll predicted that Governor Dewey would win the United States presidential election.

6 Dead, 44 Hurt In Toronto Crash

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—(CP)—Six Hamilton persons, including two women, were killed and some 44 others injured early today when a street car and a chartered bus collided on Toronto's western outskirts.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Thomas Hay; Frank Augustus Noble; Mr. and Mrs. David Armit; Earl McKie; and Gordon Beck.

First reports listed 15 in critical condition. They include the bus driver, Frank Rowe, 34, of Hamilton, with a broken left thigh, broken lower left leg, extensive lacerations, shock, broken ribs and possible punctured lung.

Most of the critically injured were passengers on the bus.

SOLDIERS AND WIVES

The Canada Coast Lines bus carried members of the Argus and Suburban Highlanders of Hamilton, who, with their wives, had attended a reunion party at the night shift at the Goodway Tire and Hubber Company plant in suburban New Toronto.

Rescuers used axyletters to remove the bus in a desperate effort to remove the screaming and moaning victims.

A crowd, attracted by the shooting, quickly gathered. And the entire city police force was mobilized at the scene.

FIRE ON CROWD

The gunman, poking a rifle from the window of the barricaded room, turned his fire on the gathering crowd, and sniped at persons seeking refuge from nearby homes.

The impact sent the big bus on its side with a crash that could be heard for miles around.

Three of the badly injured persons, including the woman, were trapped under the wreckage of the bus.

One of the first on the scene after the collision, said he saw a small fire break out in the bus. But it was quickly extinguished.

SPREAD ABOUT

Word of the shooting and dying, the dead and those who had been knocked unconscious, spread in all directions. The crowd of curious onlookers moved among them to give first aid.

The crowd, which was on the street car, averted a panic in the train by ordering passengers to remain quiet. They slapped the faces of one or two who appeared to be becoming hysterical.

Rapids-Shooting Barrels Auctioned

Poolroom Also Destroyed in Fire

By Jim McGinnis
Edmonton Bulletin Staff Reporter

A 100-man bucket brigade, and three water tank trucks from the oil fields failed to check a fire resulting in an estimated more than $27,000 damage which broke out in Redwater shortly after six Friday evening.

In a brief holocaust which raged for the hour and a half, flames licked 15 to 200 feet across a vacant lot to threaten a grocery store and with it the remainder of the main business block.

It was believed started from an over-heated stovepipe in the hotel kitchen.

Completely destroyed by fire was:

A $20,000 combination hotel and motel for oilworkers, housing the town's only restaurant and licensed premises, owned and operated by W. E. Moleka.

A $7,000 combination ice-cream parlor, confectionery and poolroom owned by Alex Trench, district farmer, and operated by Mike Shevchuk.

FRAME BUILDINGS

Both buildings were wooden frame structures, the hotel of two stories and the poolroom of one.

Scorched and threatened by fire was Fred Maloney's grocery store, which suffered an estimated $75,000 loss in stock damaged when it was hurriedly moved.

Heroic efforts of a 100-man bucket brigade of oil workers and Redwater residents and the use of three water tank trucks owned by Imperial Oil Company was all that saved the grocery store and adjacent warehouse and garage.

The store was valued at $16,000 and the warehouse and garage at $7,000.

City fire chief and pump truck No. 5 station, under the supervision of Captain E. Martini, who received a call here at 7:35, arrived in time to aid in saving Maloney's grocery.

Laying out a line of hose to a 100-foot water tank truck, the Edmonton firemen pumped water to the burning area.

Glass Factory Mooted For Edmonton Region

Eastern Canada and United Kingdom capital is said to be interested in establishment of a glass factory somewhere in northern Alberta, probably in Edmonton, it was learned this week.

Interest in the venture has been sparked by recent announcements of the discovery of large deposits of silica sands along the northern reaches of some of Alberta's rivers.

The oil sands of the Athabasca river, from which the bitumen is recovered, is a by-product of the oil sands.

The Research Council of Alberta, however, is studying the possibilities of the glass-making industry of the new form of mineral wealth.

It is pointed out some processing areas will be required.

It is entirely suitable for the making of high grade glass and that some solution to transportation problems must be solved before more definite steps can be taken.

New Prison Deal For Prince Albert

Prisoner Training Plan To Start December 1

Full-time vocational training for selected groups of young prisoners at Prince Albert penitentiary will begin Dec. 1.

The announcement was made today in Edmonton by Major General R. H. Gibson of Ottawa, commissioner of penitentiaries for the federal government.

Prince Albert is one of three Canadian penitentiaries where prisoners between the ages of 16 and 25 who show good rehabilitation prospects, will receive full time special training, the official said. Other two penitentiaries where vocational training courses are now in operation are in Ontario and Quebec.

Incidence of crime carrying penitentiary penalty is on the increase among men in this age group, General Gibson said.

BLAMES PARENTS

He blamed lack of parental supervision during war years and broken homes for the increase in the number of serious crimes committed by young men.

He is not unopposed of successful rehabilitation of many penitentiary prisoners, and praised the work being done in this regard in Eastern Canada by the John Howard Society.

Gen. Gibson will confer with George B. Hewwood, K.C. and W. W. Blackburn, officials of the local branch of the society here during the week-end.

MANY COURSES

Of Canada's 1700 inmates of penitentiaries about one-fifth are spending prison time to take correspondence courses supplied by the DVA and provincial governments. shop courses are available at all institutions, and with the use of full time vocational courses for selected groups rehabilitation prospects for discharged prisoners are favorable, he said.

Classification officers have been appointed in the various prisons to interview and study the background of prisoners with a view to assisting them in making prison time valuable.

Officers are now being given special training classes regularly in handling prisoners successfully.

W. F. Bowker Appointed Dean of Law

Appointment of Prof. Wilbur F. Bowker, B.A., LL.B. as dean of law at the University of Alberta has been announced by the University Board of Governors.

Dean Bowker has been acting head of the law faculty since retirement of Prof. G. H. Sizer, K.C., last fall.

At that time Mr. Bowker was appointed a professor.

Born in Ponoka, Dean Bowker had his early schooling in the local Alberta town.

He later attended the University of Alberta and was admitted to the Alberta bar in 1923.

He then joined the well-known legal firm of Miller, Steer, Dyde, Porter and Marland.

Joining in the Canadian Army in 1942, he attained the rank of captain before his discharge in 1945. At that time he joined the law faculty at the university as a teacher.

During the past three summers he has been continuing studies at the University of Minnesota.

Wife of the new dean of law, the former Marjorie Montgomery of Wetaskiwin, is also a graduate in law from the university.

They have one son, now three weeks old.

Heat Thieves Cost Home Owners Fuel

Weather-Stripping Proves Sure Way To Saving

Are heat thieves stealing half your fuel? Believe it or not, but everyone who buys fuel is throwing money away.

Today in every home, heat thieves are stealing as much as $50 from every $100 spent for fuel.

Alarming, isn't it? But it's a fact.

It isn't, however, difficult to stop the loss. All that is required is a little time to find out which "thieves" carry off a dollar here and a dollar there, and block the exits.

THREE KINDS
Experts tell there are three kinds of heat thieves. The first steals heat before it gets outside in the form of unheated air, unburned fuel and stack temperature.

The second steals your fuel dollars all through your house, by means of drafts, while the third steals heat out of every room through cracks, windows and even through floors and doors.

Saving fuel and guarding your wallet comes in a three-way job of insulating, caulking and weather stripping. And the experts tell you nothing adds more comfort and economy per dollar spent than "weatherstripping."

"All weather-stripping," they say, gives loose fitting windows and doors an airtight seal.

Biggest of all in point of fuel lost is the unburned fuel that escapes at the chimney.

Since air is free, this might seem of little consequence, but remember that the air enters the room, heats up the chimney, carrying away heat. This loss amounts to a loss of between 30 and 50 cents per fuel dollar.

REDUCE AIR
Unburned air is reduced by stopping air leaks and by controlling the air supplied to the furnace.

In reducing air supplied, a little reached where some fuel doesn't get enough air to finish burning, concludes the experts.

In this instance you must deal with the second kind of thief, unburned fuel.

The loss of unburned fuel, however, is not as serious as it contributes less than five cents loss per fuel dollar.

Overheating your home is a costly and unwise move. By stoking up your fire you increase the fuel burned and then when the house is too hot, you have to open a window or door to let the excessive heat escape, thus wasting more fuel dollars.

The successful way of combating the third band of fuel thieves, that is, heat that escapes through cracks in your house, is by installing a complete blanket of insulation around all walls, attic areas, plus storm shutters on all windows and weatherstripping or caulking of all cracks.

INSULATION
The experts tell you that unless your house or building is fully insulated you can't be fully comfortable no matter how much you stoke up your furnace.

"There's a lot of air leakage," they say, "in an ordinary house without weatherstripping."

"On a moderately breezy day, open cracks in doors and windows will change the air every 20 to 40 minutes and that means you are losing heat at the rate of 24 to 48 times daily. No wonder fuel costs mount."

"It is advisable to check your premises today for any faults in the air sealing of your house, cracks in windows or floors. Fix these and your fuel costs will drop considerably the experts.

Tourist Office Asked In Macleod
CALGARY, Nov. 6.—(CPI)—The Alberta Government will be asked to build a tourist information center at Macleod. The Alberta branch of the Pacific Northwest Travel Association passed a resolution to that effect at a meeting here yesterday.

"It was selected as the best site for the bureau because most tourists enter the province from the south would have to pass through the Macleod area," said Association President Alfred Blyth of Edmonton outlined details for a tourist promotion work during which members of the Travel Association would speak at as many public and private meetings as possible. He also advocated the production of a pamphlet outlining all the tourist attractions in Alberta for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Constance went to Columbia in 1925 and took up work in the province of Illinois. This was largely a pioneer effort in the establishing of congregations throughout the country and mountain districts. Mrs. Constance conducted a boarding school for students from the age of eight to 18. During these twelve years they were able to open many new preaching points, especially in remote mountain areas. Much of the time was spent in travelling by muleback over dangerous mountain trails to reach the numerous outposts, and in opening new districts. Regional conferences were held, churches established, believers baptized, and congregations organized.

Wartime Mayor To Run Again
MEDICINE HAT, Alta., Nov. 6.—(CPI)—Hector Lang, wartime mayor, announced yesterday that he was a majority candidate in the Dec. 13 civic elections. He is first aspirant to declare for this office.

Mayor W. M. Rae, completing two years in office, has not as yet revealed his intentions. Mr. Lang served eight consecutive terms as mayor of Medicine Hat, when he withdrew from public office.

Mail Insurance Repayments Announced

CALGARY, Nov. 6.—(CPI)—The Alberta Mail Insurance Board is in a position to start paying dividends, or rebates to policy holders, it was announced yesterday by J. Glen Elder, chairman and manager of the board.

It is the first time in the 50 years of mail insurance in Alberta that rebates have been possible, officials claim. They also said they believed it was the first time rebates had been made anywhere by a mail insurance company.

The rebates were made possible this year by the record minimum of hail damage in the province. Hail claims on the board this year and expenses totalled only $600,000 compared with a premium income of $1,200,000. Last year losses and expenses were $1,500,000 while premiums totalled $1,800,000.

Key Largo Opens Here on Monday

Five Stars Noted For Action Are Presented

Four pictures in months have stirred such advance interest as Warner Bros. drama Key Largo which opens at the Capitol theatre Monday.

The cast features five of Hollywood's greatest action personalities, Humphrey Bogart, Edward G. Robinson, Lauren Bacall, Lionel Barrymore and Claire Trevor.

John Huston, directed the drama which is a filmization of Maxwell Anderson's potent stage play.

The story is set in the Florida Keys with most of the action taking place during the off-season in a resort hotel. Into this quiet atmosphere gathers a motley array of personalities, whose true motives soon come to the surface.

Humphrey Bogart, an ex-Army major, arrives in the mid of the summer heat at a Key Largo, Florida hotel, which is run by Lionel Barrymore and his wayward daughter-in-law, Lauren Bacall. Unleashes a mobster, played by Edward G. Robinson, is hiding out with him, waiting for nightfall and a visit from another mob in Miami.

A hurricane strikes and forces the gang to remain longer than anticipated. Tension mounts and the air is filled with menace as the law pays a visit and regards the

Russians Exceed U.K. Wheat Deliveries

LONDON, Nov. 6. — (AP) — Harold Wilson, Board of Trade minister, told the House of Commons yesterday Russia has delivered 760,000 metric tons of grain to Britain—10,000 more than required under the 1947 Anglo-Soviet trade agreement. Wilson also reported that Britain imported other goods valued at $10,624,000 from Russia between Feb. 1 and Sept. 30, 1948. British exports to Russia during the same period aggregated $14,350,000.

Timoshenko Gets Into Red News

LONDON, Nov. 6. — (AP) — Timoshenko, Russian war hero, will review the parade of troops in Moscow's Red Square Saturday celebrating the 31st anniversary of the Communist revolution. Timoshenko has seldom been in the news since 1943.

Lamais, a corrupt form of Buddhism, is the religion prevalent in Tibet and some parts of Mongolia.

HUMPHREY BOGART and Lauren Bacall appear opposite each other in Warner Bros. drama "Key Largo," a dynamite-packed tale of mobsters, hurricanes and romance which opens at the Capitol Theatre Monday. Adapted from Maxwell Anderson's stirring story of the return of a Chicago mobster, the picture includes Lionel Barrymore, Edward G. Robinson and Claire Trevor in the 14-karat cast.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—What's funny in the movies? The question is directed at Preston Sturges, a man who gives the impression of being slightly mad as he directs and writes very funny and very successful movies ("The Great McGinty," "Miracle of Morgan's Creek," and such).

"I don't know what's funny," Sturges answers indignantly. "When a humorist tries to analyze humor, he ceases to be a humorist." But then he admitted some trade secrets.

"As white light contains all colors, so is it with situations. Each situation contains all the emotions. See the fun, and you are a humorist."

Made $300,000. "Revealing the customary reaction made $300,000 for me. I took the standard hero of American fiction and the standard villain, and switched them. The result was my play 'satirically dissonant'."

Sturges has some rules for his office. "I think you'll find they give interesting insight for films. A pretty girl is better than an ugly one. A leg is better than an arm. A bedroom is better than a living room. An arrival is better than a departure. A birth is better than a death. A kitten is better than a cat. A dog is better than a landscape. A kitten is better than a dog. A baby is better than a kitten. A kiss is better than a baby. A prat fall is better than anything."

TO DEMONSTRATE Sturges will demonstrate just about all these axioms in his current film, "The Beautiful Blonde From Bachelorland," the last trading will be well illustrated. Jerry Grable will be seen in one of the most glamorous prat falls of all time.

Young Balerina To Present Dance

A Night In Vienna
Also Scheduled Monday

By Dick Sherbanuk

Musically interested Edmontonians will have to decide between two unique concerta Monday night.

It'll be a choice of ballet dancing or popular opera—the latter will be heard in Westgate high school auditorium, when Basia Horfald, senior music director for Vancouver Theatre Under The Stars, presents west-coast talent in A Night In Vienna, featuring selections from Flotow's Martha (Act II), 17 songs and duets from such compositions as Carmen, Chocolate Soldier, Merry Widow, Flotow's, Veronique, Fledermaus, Merrie England, Bitter Sweet and Faust.

The ballet will see young European prima ballerina Maria Pryma, who comes from Lwów, Vienna, Salzburg, Innsbruck and Geneva.

It has been in Canada a month but is not wasting a minute in N.Y. to see the West in the West. See the result on Monday night.

Believed to be the youngest prima ballerina in Europe, Miss Pryma last year presented more than 100 concerts in major Soviet and Austrian cities.

Now 20 years old, tall, and a pretty brunette with deep brown eyes, she began studying ballet at the age of five and made her stage debut at 14.

Edmontonians will have the chance to see the result on Monday night.

SOLOIST ALSO
The program will be dramatic soprano Natalia Ryshko, who recently came to Canada from Russia. Accompanied by the piano, she will sing arias from the evening by Ivanova Pryma.

University students may get the opportunity to have Miss Pryma on the campus for a special concert. She will be singing in the Winnipeg recital, Miss Pryma will return for a repeat performance in the fall.

At the University of Alberta, she has been given the opportunity to sponsor the pretty ballerina, who has been given the executive of the club will make a decision.

THE VARIETY HALL CLUB
The Variety Hall Club is embarking on its third year of operation, and its members, in addition to the general student body, would get a kick out of watching the European-trained ballerina perform.

Not that the Variety club is without talent. This year's instructor is Miss Miriam Taylor, of the Variety School of Dancing, who is a prima ballerina at the Winnipeg

TORONTO LAUDS WINNIEPEG GIRL

A Toronto audience and music critics acclaimed a young Russian-born Winnipeg pianist, Tova Borshtyck, following a varied recital given recently.

Newspaper reviewers' notes today termed her playing "the happiest possible one," "a rare blend of technical finesse and 'flawless piano."

Miss Borshtyck, who has studied in Winnipeg and Toronto, is now in the United States at the Toronto Conservatory. She was the first winner of a $1,000 award given by the T. Eaton Co.

Only adverse criticism was the opinion of two critics who saw too little technique in her playing, although all agreed on the excellent quality of the keyboard.

She failed to realize that technical perfection is not art, said one, "but merely the tool with which to create it."

Radio Takes Role In World Problem

By Don Flach

"Since war began in the minds of men, it is the minds of men that the defense of peace must be constructed."

So goes the preamble to one of the important United Nations organizations.

With the advent of radio, the realization of the fact that people must understand each other's aims, their ways of life, and social customs, has been gained daily. Today people must realize the importance of differences between individuals, and that these differences must be respected.

The literature of our land and of the world, and the music of the most potent forces in promoting peace, are being brought to the attention of the people.

To many people, the radio is a new concept. People must be made to understand the importance of the radio in the age in which we live.

These instruments are chiefly the press, radio and motion pictures. It is strange that radio, once looked upon as a tool of entertainment, should now be regarded as one of the strong weapons for the building of a peaceful world.

There are reasons for this. Radio is timely, it is vital, it reaches into the hearts of men, and has the power to bring about a new understanding of the world.

It is universal, cutting across all lines of difference, and has been adopted by the youth of the land as the most common form of communication.

Russian Scores On Columbia Disc Album

By Dick Sherbanuk

There's a treat in store for you if you haven't yet heard Kabalevsky's The Comedians, two 12-inch discs recorded by Columbia Masterworks.

One of the "big three" Russian composers, along with Shostakovich and Khachaturian, Kabalevsky has written a piano piece that is work similar to Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf. Like Peter and the Wolf, it is a story of a boy and a wolf.

It is a story of a boy and a wolf. It is a story of a boy and a wolf. It is a story of a boy and a wolf. It is a story of a boy and a wolf.

Radio Takes Role In World Problem

By Don Flach

"Since war began in the minds of men, it is the minds of men that the defense of peace must be constructed."

So goes the preamble to one of the important United Nations organizations.

With the advent of radio, the realization of the fact that people must understand each other's aims, their ways of life, and social customs, has been gained daily. Today people must realize the importance of differences between individuals, and that these differences must be respected.

The literature of our land and of the world, and the music of the most potent forces in promoting peace, are being brought to the attention of the people.

To many people, the radio is a new concept. People must be made to understand the importance of the radio in the age in which we live.

These instruments are chiefly the press, radio and motion pictures. It is strange that radio, once looked upon as a tool of entertainment, should now be regarded as one of the strong weapons for the building of a peaceful world.

There are reasons for this. Radio is timely, it is vital, it reaches into the hearts of men, and has the power to bring about a new understanding of the world.

It is universal, cutting across all lines of difference, and has been adopted by the youth of the land as the most common form of communication.

He's In The Bag; MacDonald Signed

Gene Mason, the ex-Vancouverite who means to put the fight game on its feet hereabouts, has finally cleared away the fog which has been hovering over the Roddy MacDonald picture of late.

Mason, acclaimed as the man who made the ring sport hum at the coast, advised last night that he has signed the popular Edmonton contender.

The contract calls for Roddy to trade punches at the Stock Pavilion on Nov. 18, with one of four Pacific Coast pugilists.

The promoter-matchmaker will definitely name MacDonald's opponent by Monday.

Meanwhile, MacDonald is getting down to serious business in preparation for the bout. Until recently his training had been along mild lines. Now, however, he's back at the rigorous grind.

Danny MacDonald, who handled Roddy overseas, is again holding the managerial reins, while Hugh, the cop's younger brother, is acting as sparring partner.

McNicol, Bellamy To Ring Confab

C. W. (Red) McNicol and B. W. Bellamy will represent the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union at a meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union at London, Ontario, the week of November 18.

It is expected that one of the main items of business at the conference will be the reorganization of the Canadian Olympic Committee.

The Women's Amateur Athletic Federation will also meet during the week.

GOES MAD WITH FRIGHT

Airplane Ride Proves Fatal To Race Horse

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(CP)—Dijal, a high-strung French stallion, went mad with fright on the first leg of an air trip to the United States Friday and killed himself in an effort to kick his way out of the plane.

The four-year-old horse, winner of races in both France and England, was sold recently to an American syndicate of breeders for $225,000.

Seventeen days, all barbing, eventually, were required in the plane, with the frenzied Dijal and were still yapping when the pilot took off again after making an emergency stop at Bovingdon airport to get rid of the carcass.

Officials at Bovingdon said, "from the pilot's account it is a wonder the horse did not kick itself out into the air."

One official said Dijal "had a fit in the air and actually killed himself."

Dijal was sold to the United States group by Marcel Bous-

BILL McNALLY TABBED SPORTSMAN OF WEEK

Bill McNally is Edmonton's sportsman of the week.

The hefty young fullback with St. Joseph's high school football team was accorded that honor at the Sports Forum Friday night. Bob Stocks of Victoria football team ran second to McNally.

The voting didn't entirely favor Edmontonians. One ballot was marked favoring Bill Kyle of the Regina Caps hockey team.

Jim Macrae, Varsity Golden Bear football and basketball star, addressed the 250 boys on the hoop sport following basketball film.

Next week's forum will be held on Thursday, November 11.

Group Out To 'Raise Standard of Soccer'

The Edmonton and District Football association is out to "raise the standard of soccer in the city," either by reconstructing the present league or by forming an inter-city circuit.

The proposed inter-city loop was discussed at length by members attending the annual general meeting at the Recreation building last night.

When the thunder had subsided, it was decided to have two delegates bring the matter up before the Alberta Football association general meeting at Calgary Nov. 15.

President Tom Green and secretary George Wice will handle this assignment.

Election of a new date of officers was deferred until Jan. 31 of next year. At that time a nominating committee will bring in a list. This group—Dr. Jordan, Bill Williams, Sam Davidson, Jack Strachan and

'Buy a Wailing Wall' Flyer Critic Derides

The Flyers were on the pan around the town Friday, following that 4-2 setback suffered in Lethbridge. But then so were the gentlemen of the press and radio, judging by the fast-talking Joe who phoned the sports department early in the evening.

"When are you and Mackintosh and the rest of those dinks going to quit quibbling for the Flyers?" he demanded. "I can just say, the Maple Leafs 'getting away with murder' as you reported, against poor little 'Pug' Young and some more of the Flyers."

Quite sarcastic, he was, as he continued. "Perhaps we should buy one of those wailing walls."

There was more... much more, particularly about "wailing walls," "crying towels" and kindred sister adjuncts. Come to think of it he didn't add up to much of a Flyer supporter.

However quite apart from what wails with a night off may think of the gazillion who lool along Type writer Row and we do mean "lool!" Flyers' defeat at the hands of the short-handed Leafs (Steve Latoski and Grant Hall are on the sidelines) didn't sit too well with their supporters along Jasper. That fact that the Allan Cup champions hit the road next week on that tough night (three games in four nights, two against the peacemaking Regina Caps) didn't make for assurance either.

One thing was established for certain Friday in the Flyer camp. Bernie Bathgate, previously reportedly a "wailing wall" for the Flyers, was now a "crying towel" for the Leafs.

For one thing the famed "Reeling Hair-Line" of last season—Sam Kneier, Alex Pringle and Freddy Smith—will be reunited. Smith will play, definitely. This time the doctor's orders are that he be sewing into line.

The Anderson-Clovechuk-Merkle line will remain as is but rookie Ken Kilburn will take over at left wing on the line of Merv Blumstad and Bill Mahar. And finally Bill (Hammy) Pettigrew, who hasn't started in a league this season, will be on the defence. Sitting this one out will be none other than "Pug" Young.

"Just want to get Pettigrew in the line," Currie explained the move. "The defence also will all start in a turn."

Turfmen Suspended for Life

The life-suspensions grew out of disclosures by the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau in New York two weeks ago that it had "photographic proof" that the horses didn't delay run under the name of Lid at Blue Bonnets.

The Lid at Blue Bonnets identified Edwards as owner and trainer and Ferris as trainer.

The QRA also suspended four other persons temporarily, pending a hearing. They were named as Joseph Steese, Harrisville, R.I.; J. W. Dunn, Junction City, Kansas; D. M. Short, Park View, Nebraska; and W. Holborn, Toronto.

Leaf, EAC Juniors Emerge Triumphant

Canadians, South Siders Drop 2nd 'Pennant' Games

Edmonton Athletic Club and Maple Leafs continued their winning ways at the Arena last night as the junior hockeyists offered a second twin-bill of the season.

EAC edged South Siders by 4-3. Leafs towrope a battling band of Canadians, counting 7-1. On the basis of territorial exchanges both games might just as well have gone the other way.

TIGHT BATTLE The under dog South Side squad, coming back from a severe shellacking suffered at the hands of the Leafs on Wednesday (score was 8-1), outplayed EAC by a wide margin at several points on the way. As far along as the ninth minute of play in the final period they were still strictly in the ball game, the scoreboard reading 3-3.

Then at 8:55 Stu Robertson, with a fine dividend for the big tip he wears, provided the Clubmen with their margin of victory. He steamed in with Doug Kilburn to dupe Ron Park in the S.S. cage.

As the teams were getting all knotted up at 5:3 Don Perry, Robertson and Jack Schafel were the EAC marksmen. In the other game, Bob Gail, with a pair, and Ron Ferguson flicked on the light.

EAC'S HOLD ON Coach Bobby Graham of the South Siders directed netminder Parks for the last 50 seconds in front of an excited crowd. EAC's hold on to the klaxon.

The Maple Leaf-Canadian game just didn't make sense, particularly in the early stages. In the first period the armed and dangerous Leafs were all over the Leafs as they stormed to the attack. However, they were also wide open and now and then a Leaf raid would break out of the end and the road to the Canadian goal would be anything but rocky.

Goals by Zig Stewart, Bill McNally and Ron Phillips provided the committed Leafs with a 3-0 lead. Bill Trimble, for the losers, and McNally again, split goals in the middle session. High scoring Ken Watson tallied the lone marker as Leafs increased their margin to 5-1 in the last stanza.

Typically of the way Canadian fortunes went part of the night they had a two man advantage when Watson made his payoff pass.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Lamont Trustees Meet at Mundare

MUNDARE, Nov. 6.—Convention of the Lamont-Truist Association was held in the National Hall here on Nov. 1. At the conclusion of the program, a banquet followed at which addresses were given by Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, and Supt. A. R. Gibson.

A choir of Mundare school girls sang O Canada while Rev. V. S. Shaw read the invocation. Opening address of welcome was ably delivered by Michael Sheehan on behalf of the mayor, J. Sweeney, followed by an address of welcome by Supt. Gibson on behalf of the Lamont school and district.

A. R. Gibson, superintendent of the Lamont school division, stressed the necessity of a children's guidance center in the schools. Plans to establish the station of small individual country schools and establish a school bus service to rural schools were also mentioned.

A report on behalf of the health services in the division was given by Dr. T. R. Brownridge, medical officer of health of the Lamont Health Unit. He commented on the cooperation of the trustees to support the recommendations of providing schools with proper ventilation facilities, heating and sanitation facilities to provide good health conditions in their schools.

Other speakers were A. G. Andrews, secretary-treasurer for the Alberta School Trustees Association, and William Buchanik representing the W.A.A.

St. Paul Area Roads Progress

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—The Municipal Board of St. Paul has recently completed a first-class road from St. Paul to Lac la Poudre on which travelling will commence within a week, according to information released by Secretary M. T. Grekul. It is expected that part of the road will be completed within a week. Among other roads rebuilt by the city this summer is that from Ashcroft to St. Paul which municipal authorities expect to have completed within a month. The stretch of municipal grade highway from the city's corner to Burdette, a distance of about three miles, will be completed this fall.

Lost Wetaskiwin Boy Is Former Air Gunner

WETASKIWIN, Nov. 6.—Norbert Wolt, Wetaskiwin boy missing in the rugged country between the north end of Lake Winnipegosis and The Pas, in northern Manitoba, is the son of L. A. Wolt, farmer of the district who lives eight miles west and a mile north of this city.

The parents received a wire on Monday morning that he was missing and took the train Wednesday for Dauphin, from which point they will seek to reach the place where the young man had their camp.

Norbert, or Bert, as he was more commonly called, spent some years in the air force as a gunner, and on his discharge, learned to fly. He and a companion, Frank Kase, and a third man named Jim at the north end of the lake, the canoe and paddles were found on a sandspit just in the lake but no trace of him has yet been found.

There is one other man, Edgar, a boy 15 years old. Bert is 21 but despite his youth had flown in 20 operations during the war having been a member of the famous 439 Mouse Squadron.

None of the families in the district, of whom there are four or five families, have heard anything further as to the fate of the young man.

By Lloyd C. Douglas, this is the story of Simon called Peter, the most lovable and human of the disciples, who laid down his fisherman's net on the Sea of Galilee to follow Jesus to Gethsemane and then to deny Him—yet later to become the greatest of the first leaders and teachers of Christianity. The book will probably reach the hearts of more people than any book ever published. It is a masterpiece of the greatest story in our culture. Only the man who wrote The Bible could have written The Big Fisherman.

CITY IRON WORKERS REACH SETTLEMENT

Amicable negotiations between Edmonton's Standard Iron Workers and members of the Mine and Smelter Workers Union were concluded here on Thursday, it was learned today.

Request for intervention in the course of bargaining between the two interested parties was "premature" K. A. Pugh, chairman of Alberta's board of industrial relations said today.

Employers and management were negotiating without difficulty and concluded a new agreement, satisfactory to both parties without intervention.

Rita Says 'No' To Marriage Rumors

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6.—(BUP)—Close friends of film star Rita Hayworth said today she definitely would not marry Aly Khan, wealthy Indian prince who accompanied her here earlier this week on a vacation.

"I'm not divorced yet" was all Rita Hayworth would say when asked about it at a press conference yesterday. Her divorce from Crown Wales becomes final next week.

The actress met Aly Khan on the French Riviera last summer. He is the son of the Aga Khan, reportedly the richest man in the world. He reportedly is separated from his wife in India.

The Prince's whereabouts have been unknown since he arrived with Rita Hayworth from Los Angeles. A few people claim to have seen him at the Reforma Hotel, where the actress is staying, but his name does not appear on the register.

OIL WORKER'S DEATH CLAIMED ACCIDENTAL

A coroner's jury brought in a verdict of accidental death Friday at the inquest of LEO HUGH, 23-year-old oil worker who died in University Hospital October 20 as a result of a blow received on the back of the neck two days previous while working for the Federal Oil Company at Leduc.

The verdict read:

"We the jury are of the opinion that this was purely an accident and no blame is attached to any one."

Cause of death was established as broken and displaced vertebrae in the neck.

Dr. M. M. Cantor, acting as provincial coroner, presided.

Two Clubs to Hear Talk By Sir Shuldham Redfern

MONDAY—Kiwans
TUESDAY—Gyro, SS Kiwanis, Cosmopolitan, Lions, Y's Men's Club.
WEDNESDAY—McDougall Men's Club, Rotary.

History of "howling" is the subject of an address to be given by the Edmonton Kiwanis Club at their meeting in the Macdonald Hotel Monday noon. Rev. William L. Hill will be the speaker.

A joint meeting of the Cosmopolitan and Lions Clubs will be held Tuesday evening in the Traders to hear Sir Shuldham Redfern, K.C.V.O., director of the Commonwealth Department of the British Empire.

Ed. Reid was born at Redfern, N.S., and came to Edmonton in 1910, where he established a tailoring business.

During the Second World War he was employed as a government inspector of uniforms made in various factories throughout Canada, but at the end of hostilities returned to his business in Edmonton.

Armed Forces programs are planned by the Rotary and Kiwanis Men's Clubs on Wednesday. The Rotary Club will be meeting Wednesday noon in the Macdonald Hotel and the Kiwanis Men's Club Wednesday evening in the McDougall Club.

Meeting of the Cyclists Club for the week has been cancelled.

Edmonton Is Seen As Steel Mill Centre

English Firm May Erect Plant On South Side

Edmonton may become a steel milling centre in the near future.

It is expected that the steel milling plant will result from the decision of English Steel Corporation, London, to establish an oil drilling equipment manufacturing plant in south Edmonton.

The company, through a Calgary concern, purchased a large plant site on the west side of 101 street, between 79 and 80 avenues.

Graham W. Curtis, city industrial commissioner, confirmed the purchase of the property by the British company. Immediate start will be made on construction of a plant to "distribute and manufacture oil well drilling bits and other steel products."

The English company is one of 37 firms to establish in Edmonton this year as a result of discovery of oil in the Leduc-Calgary field.

Increasing demand for oil drilling equipment, pipe and other steel products, coupled with prospect of economical power in Alberta, may result in the company erecting a steel mill here.

Other companies to locate here this year in the oil industry include Imperial, which has been developing oil fields in the north, and Imperial, which has been developing oil fields in the north.

These companies are located in three main city areas at the rail head on 148 street, on the south side between 99 and 100 streets, and on the south side along or near 104 street.

Operating at the railhead site on 148 street are:

Halliburton, which purchased a Co., Oklahoma, which purchased a

'FRIEND AND HELPER'

Edited by Ruth Barry

SEND IN YOUR ENTRIES

Chances to Win Prizes For Tawasi Members

Here Is What TAWASI Means

Tawasi is an Indian word meaning friend and helper.

As a Tawasi you promise to be a friend and helper to all.

Many ways to say, but it means a lot of things.

A FRIEND: Does not say mean things or listen to them.

A HELPER: Does not refuse to be reminded of jobs at home.

You may think many ways to be a friend and helper.

Write and tell me of the things you or your friends do that a Tawasi would be proud of.

Sincerely, RUTH BARRY.

Badge and Card Await Members

Tawasi Club members will receive a membership card and badge of acceptance of their application.

Membership card you take with you in all club events, social activities and entitles you to all privileges.

Junior readers of the Edmonton Bulletin in surrounding districts as well as Edmonton City, are eligible.

Here's the Place To Get a Pet

Let's say you have some kittens, dogs or rabbits to give away, or to someone else wants a kitten, a pup, or a rabbit.

Well—You with the pet, write to the Edmonton Bulletin Tawasi Club and we will put it in this column for the "wanters" to see.

Write and tell me the reasonable things your pets do (like mother's cat which chases dogs).

Refrigeration Method Found

TOHNTON, Nov. 6.—(C.P.)—A new method of insulating refrigeration promises water markets for the Canadian food industry.

It was developed by the Dominion government's Agricultural Station under the direction of Dr. Neal S. Carter, and a trial run in Toronto has shown wide possibilities.

The idea came from the fact that the industry, but it was the responsibility of the experimental station which was designed to test a new method.

The car used a refrigerant similar in principle to household refrigerating units, it is operated by a gasoline engine with the unit blown along the floor, up the wall and ceiling and back to the unit for recirculation.

The trial shipment of a load of frozen fruit and vegetables was carried east in a temperature of 10 degrees below zero.

The preliminary shipment showed the promise reached the market in improved condition as compared with that obtainable under refrigeration of current type.

In style with other Government departments, the Commission has joined the publicity parade of press releases and handouts.

"In the Commission's five releases," read the report, "public relations officers were engaged during the year in preparing and distributing informative material for press and radio."

PAY SCALE

Pay rates for Government publicists generally from $3,000 to a top of $8,000. Every department has its own quota of public relations "experts," and each group has its own special Government letterhead for the canned news of its "press releases."

The Commission's accounting for the cost of publicity was reported at $725,131.

When Dr. Arthur Beaulac was elected to the office for his second year, sitting for David Curran.

On the return from Ottawa, he is going to Toronto on another Association assignment, and then come back home to retire before Christmas in late January.

Assistant Clerk Roy Graham already has taken over everything but the title in the operation and administration of the Centre Block.

There have been, and still are, plenty of members of Parliament who have held Dr. Beaulac in considerable awe, and were never too sure of themselves when submitting their travelling expenses and other accounts for his approval.

The House expects Roy Graham will be a softer touch. He was an MP himself before the 1945 election, sitting for David Curran.

When Mr. Oliver took over in 1945, the Ontario Liberals held 16 seats. Strength dropped to 11 in 1947 provincial election, and went up to 12 this year.

They said the Ontario Liberals were taking Farquhar Oliver at his word when he promised just before last spring's provincial election he would resign if failing to restore the party's fortunes.

They'll be happy to settle for Mr. Oliver's fortunes.

LAST LOOK BEFORE THE LEAP INTO EVENING'S GAIETY

DOORBELL WILL RING in just a few moments and Barbara Lindsey, left, Fay Rhodes and Jocelyn Rogers will be ready to go to the Wauneita Ball. This is the first formal of the campus year and is sponsored by the Wauneita Society of the University of Alberta. Top reason for all the excitement is that in this year, co-eds do the dating, laying a firm foundation for their social activities for the rest of the term.

Junior Social Set Swings in Liltng Waltztime At First University of Alberta Formal of Year

Formal dancing season will get underway in traditional fashion on the University of Alberta campus tonight.

Six hundred squaws of the Wauneita tribe will escort the braves of their choice to the annual Wauneita reception, to be held in the Drill Hall, commencing at 8:30 p.m.

Formal frocks and gay corsages will be the order of the day for the co-eds, while really sharp Indian princesses will see that their dates have novelty corsages, too.

Mary Morrison, president of the Wauneita Society, will receive the guests, and present them to the patronesses, Mrs. L. S. Baker, honorary president, Miss Maimie Simpson and Mrs. H. T. Sparby.

To add a final gala touch to this festive autumn occasion and to show the boys that when the girls take over the paying end they do it royally, many young Edmonton hostesses will entertain at dessert parties, punch parties and buffet dinners before the dance.

About six couples will gather at the home of Mrs. D. J. Teviotdale, with her daughter Wendy entertains before the dance.

Dorel Mills will be hostess at a dessert party for 30 young people, at the Garneau home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mills.

Invitations for a dinner party have been extended by Adele McQuay, while Phyllis Russell, Marnie Hudson and Dolores Millar will hold dessert parties for their friends.

Home of W. Y. Archibald will be the scene of a pre-Wauneita party, when his sister, Marion Archibald will be hostess.

Although dancing to Norris Pacey's orchestra will stop at midnight, many girls in residence and in fraternity houses will use a valuable 2 o'clock pass and festivities will continue till then.

Hungry braves will be treated to steaks (or am I dreaming?), sandwiches and Chinese dishes at Truck and overtown restaurants.

Large group of upperclasswomen and their fellows will talk over the dance at the home of Lucille Turcotte, while 10 couples will gather for coffee and sandwiches at the West End home of Jean and Janet McDougall.

EAGER AS BEAVERS, CO-EDS WAIT FOR WAUNEITA DATES

FEMINE, PROUD FROCKS give pretty co-eds a party air as they chat the last few moments before their dates arrive for the annual Wauneita formal. It's being held at the varsity drill hall to ease transpor-

tion problems for co-eds. More than 1,200 students are expected to have a wonderful time at the party. Students, juniors and seniors regard this dance as a major event of the year.

PEMBINA LOUNGE DECORATED WITH PRETTY WAUNEITAS JUST BEFORE THE BALL

CAMPUS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES can really fall into full swing after Saturday when co-eds turn out in their finest finery for the first formal of the varsity term. It's the male students who sit by the telephone, waiting for an invitation to the large-

Scott, are really and truly waiting for the big event.

Week-End Jaunt
Before Snow Comes

By Ben Thrifty

Huzzah! 'Tis time for another lazy week-end. This may be the last week-end when a drive in the pure country air will be a popular sport. With 't of min winter breathing down our necks, it's time we throw out of enthusiasm into last Autumn jaunt.

As a matter of fact we may throw a few picnic baskets into a basket and make a real day of it.

For the moment a new bit of crisp for such caravanning... but if you happen to have the inclination... here's the list of butlers as was ever thought out: Solid hams or parson's house and insert this mixture: Ground ham, or tinned corn, chopped parsley, chopped celery and a whisper of onion, neatly combined with a dash of mustard and mayonnaise.

When eating time comes, toast the buns over the campfire... and oh! are they ever good!

More berries, but not so practical for a walking party are the so-called jam hams. Combine shredded cabbage, pickle and chopped onion and cover bottom half of ham with jam and put on top of ham the onion mixture. Arrange on a chop plate, fill with onion rings, pickles and a bit of parsley garnish.

Here's a party recipe to make this simple as simple to make. It's called cinnamon apples. It's salad and this is what you do with the fruit:

Add red cinnamon candies to canned pear juice, cook until candies are dissolved or melt.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Explanations Check
Destructive Child

By Myrtle Meyer Elford

It's pretty difficult for a mother to meet the destructive acts of her children without strong emotions. Destruction is often painful for the parent, since something of material or sentimental value is lost to her. But a parent must look behind the act to discover its motive. Has the child done this accidentally? One mother who was infuriated when she found her small daughter cutting up a valuable handkerchief, remembered with clarity that on a previous occasion she had selected a bright handkerchief, cut a hole in the centre and draped it over the child's head. Now, her daughter simply mimicked that behavior when her dolly needed a new dress.

A child who sees its mother cut a piece of a recipe from a magazine, or if its father hammer nails in the furniture, will want to do the same though the choice of materials or the object which receives the blow may be those the parent cherishes. But the motives are not malicious ones and the child needs explanation and not punishment for the mistaken act.

There is a type of destruction in which a child exercises what is motivated by a spirit of revenge. The child is mad at the parent for mean or cruel or unjust treatment, and the object chosen for destruction is one the individual values highly.

If one is certain that destruction is based on a spirit of revenge, then cruel punishment only adds to the child's anger. The child who is motivated by a spirit of revenge will be more likely to be understood by a parent who explains the child's motives and the child needs explanation and not punishment for the mistaken act.

FOR SALE

GINKY is an ornery mouse, but the Teenie Weenies admit that he has brains, of a kind for he certainly beat the little folk in a fast moving real estate deal lately. The mouse knew that the man's hat which the Teenie Weenies used for a town hall had burned down and he knew they were looking for something to take its place. The mouse shadowed the little people wherever they went and spied on them when they visited the dump where the big folks throw away their trash because this is where the Teenie Weenies get most of their building material.

One day the mouse hid behind an old broom and listened to a couple of Teenie Weenies who were discussing the merits of a half-gallon syrup can as a new town hall. "We don't want any more buildings made out of hats," said the Teenie Weenie Policeman. "They're regular fire traps. That syrup can would make a fine town hall. We'll bring the General to see it."

When the Teenie Weenies had left, Ginky sneaked to the Teenie Weenie village, knocked on the door of the teapot where the Chinaman lives and does the Teenie Weenie washing. "I'm going into business and I want you to make a sign for me," Ginky told the Chinaman, who understands mouse talk better than the other Teenie Weenies.

The kind-hearted Chinaman quickly made the sign and the mouse hurried off with a smirk on his face. When he arrived at the syrup can he tacked up the sign. Then crawling through the opening into the can, he promptly went to sleep while waiting for customers from the Teenie Weenie village.

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY WM. DONAHUE

Later the General decided to look over the syrup can, so he and the Policeman visited the dump. When they came to the syrup can they were much astonished to see a sign which read: "For sale. Inquire Within." The two Teenie Weenies looked wildly at each other and then the Policeman knocked on the can. When Ginky appeared at the opening the Policeman flew into a rage. "Get out of here you no-account mouse," he ordered. "This is our can."

"Oh is that so: I happen to be in possession of this can. If you want to buy, it is for sale," smirked Ginky, pointing to the sign.

The General admitted that Ginky had possession; there was nothing to do but buy the can. He sent for the Chinaman to interpret because Ginky is rather hard to understand especially when he gets excited. Ginky asked 75 grains of corn, 12 cracked walnuts and his weight in cheese. This, as anyone knows, is quite too much to pay for a used syrup can.

THEY CLAIM A MAN CAN'T QUIT THE GANG TO GO STRAIGHT, AND LIVE--THOMAS GRAY SAID, "THE PATHS OF GLORY LEAD BUT TO THE GRAVE" LET'S VOTE "MONSTER" A BRAVE TRY, ANYWAY--

WHAT'S YER ANGLE, HOT SPOT! TELL ME YUH WANT TO GO STRAIGHT--QUIT TH' GANG! GET A JOB IN MY PLANT!

YEAH! I'VE ALWAYS BEEN WIT' YOU! I WANT TO GO STRAIGHT, TOO!

GIT INSIDE! LOUSE UP MY FACTORY! PLANT A BOMB, MAYBE! IF I HADN'T BEEN A HOOD ALL MY LIFE, I MIGHT FALL FER YER LINE--

YOU DID IT! YOU GOT OUT O' TH' MOB! I JUST WANT YUH SHOULD HELP ME!

HOW LONG YUH THINK OUR OLD GANG'LL LET YUH LIVE?

WELL, THEY AIN'T GOT YOU--THEM THREE GUYS THAT WENT TO YER FLAT--FELL INTO TH' ALLEY-- I AIN'T A SAD "MONSTER"!

THEY FIGGERED TO GET YUH LAST TUESDAY, ON YER WAY TO VOTE--MUGGS SAID IT WAS A SURE T'ING! HE FORGOT HOW FAST YOU WAS WIT A ROD-- I WAS THERE, "MONSTER"!

YEAH! I SEEN YUH! WELL, DAT MAKES FOUR WE DON'T HAVE TO WATCH OUT FER NO MORE--

"WE"? EIVE, WITH ME! AND INSTEAD OF JUST YOU AGAINST TH' MOB, THERE'LL BE TWO OF US, NOW-- WILL YUH LET ME WORK FER YUH, "MONSTER"?

YEAH! SURE-- BUT JUST GIT TH' STRAIGHT, HOT SPOT!

I'M AN HONEST BUSINESS MAN NOW-- SURE! BUT I AIN'T FORGOT A T'ING I LEARNED AS A HOOD-- I DON'T TRUST NOBODY TOO FAR-- SEE?

AND JUST ONE MISCLUE OUT O' YOU, PAL, AND IT'LL BE SOFT MUSIC! I'M MAKIN' YUH A STRAW BOSS-- KEEP AN EYE ON DAT KID O' MINE, SEE? ON AND OFF TH' JOB!

YEAH! I KNOW WHAT YUH MEAN, BOSS! TRUST ME! "LITTLE M" AIN'T GOIN' TO BE ALONE NO MORE, WHETHER HE GUESSES IT OR NOT--

WEAKLING! QUITTER! CAN'T TRUST HIM! STILL, I QUIT TH' MOB! I GUESS IT TAKES INSIDES AT THAT--AND MAYBE A LITTLE HELP-- I'LL WATCH TH' GUY, BUT I'LL BACK HIM-- ALL TH' WAY! AFTER ALL, HE DIDN'T HAVE TH' REASON TO GO STRAIGHT DAT I DID-- MAYBE HE'S O.K., AFTER ALL!

HEY! WHAT'S DIS? Y'AIN'T CROWDIN' YER LUCK, ARE YOU, ANNIE?

OH, THE DOCTOR SAYS SHE'S MAKING A MARVELOUS RECOVERY--

11-7-48

OH, "MONSTER"-- I'M SCARED ALL THE TIME YOU'RE NOT HERE-- I KNOW HOW DANGEROUS IT IS FOR ANY GUY TO QUIT A MOB--

FORGET IT, KID! I HAD A REASON! AND I'M NOT TH' KIND THAT RELAXES IN TH' WRONG PLACES--

WHY, OUTSIDE O' DIS HOSPITAL, I'M AS CAGEY AS A CAT IN A DOG KENNEL-- HERE! JUST A FEW POSIES I BRUNG YUH--

SAVE 'EM! YUH CAN USE 'EM, YERSELF "MONSTER"!
